Commercial Truck Passenger Authorization Form

Written carrier authorization

Carrier / USDOT number

Driver / vehicle unit

Passenger full name

Transportation begins at

Transportation ends at

Authorization expires on

Authorization

The carrier identified above authorizes the named passenger to travel only between the listed points and before the expiration date, subject to the conditions entered below and applicable safety requirements. The authorization does not extend to other passengers or trips.

Trip dates / approved conditions / restrictions

Before approval

- ☐ Confirm that company and insurance requirements permit the trip and passenger.
- ☐ Verify an appropriate passenger seating position and required restraint are available; do not exceed vehicle capacity.
- ☐ Explain applicable seat-belt, emergency, site-access, and distraction rules to the driver and passenger.

Carrier approval and receipt

Authorized official / title

Official signature / approval date

Driver receipt / date

392.60 contains exceptions, including assigned employees, emergency aid, and livestock attendants, plus a specified farm-operation exception. Apply the rule to the actual operation. This form contains no release of liability, indemnity, wage deduction, or repayment agreement.

49 CFR 392.60 49 CFR 392.16